A Royal Chorfest Clinician

Bruce Pullan needs little introduction to BCCF Chorfest-goers – he has been our clinician in three previous conferences, as well as directing the BC Youth Choir and the Children's Choir in three more. He was born and trained in England, and since arriving in Canada in 1974 he has established an enviable reputation as a singer, teacher, adjudicator and guest conductor. He has just retired from the position of Director of Choirs at UBC, and is in his final season as Music Director of the Vancouver Bach Choir, with which he has worked since 1983. In 2007 he was appointed to the Order of Canada.

Stephen Smith, Accompanist. Born and raised in Nova Scotia, and with musical training in the UK, Stephen Smith has lived in Vancouver since 1990, earning his doctorate at UBC and establishing a place as one of the city's leading pianists. He is also assistant conductor of the UBC University Singers and the Vancouver Bach Choir, accompanist for Vancouver Men's Chorus and Elektra Women's Choir, and an accomplished composer and arranger.
